

Being a carer : Match the broken sentences

Write the corresponding number, at the beginning of the sentence, next to the relevant section on the right:

1. The carer takes on this task
2. Anyone can find
3. Everyone's situation
4. Some carers may have to juggle
5. Carers provide assistance from
6. This care can be full-time
7. Other family and friends can be
8. Carers can find the role and needs
9. Caring can lead to
10. Carers can have little or no
11. Carers can feel guilt and that

- _____ is different
- _____ round the clock, 24/7
- _____ others are judging them
- _____ exhaustion and isolation
- _____ assumed and unrecognised
- _____ voluntarily, out of love or necessity
- _____ training and can vary in ability to cope
- _____ dismissive of the pressures and carer's needs
- _____ caring with other responsibilities
- _____ themselves in the caring role
- _____ companionship to support with personal care